- i. For costs incurred by the FIRST PARTY in removing, disposing or bringing out stands, signboards, signage, props, production sets and other equipment or movable property brought in by the SECOND PARTY, its officers, employees, representatives, agents or contractors including its guests, customers or invitees.

The applicable tax on these additional charges, presently VAT, shall be for the account of the SECOND PARTY.

4. Guarantee of Payment. To guarantee the payment of the Aggregate Charges, plus applicable taxes and additional charges, the SECOND PARTY shall submit to the FIRST PARTY a Certificate of Availability of Funds, or any similar document stating that funds have been appropriated and specifically allocated for such payment, at least one (1) month prior to the holding of the Event. Failure to submit the said certificate or similar document within the aforesaid deadlines shall entitle the SECOND PARTY to release the FIRST PARTY's reservation for the Venue.

All Venue Charges, Additional Charges, and any other monetary obligation arising from or in connection with this Agreement, the SECOND PARTY hereby guarantees that the same shall be fully paid not later than ninety (90) days from receipt of the Statement of Account issued by the FIRST PARTY.

5. Permits to Hold the Event. The SECOND PARTY shall secure any and all permits or licenses from all government agencies/authorities, whether national or local, which may be necessary or appropriate for the staging or holding of the Event, and shall provide the FIRST PARTY with photocopies of such permits or licenses not later than five (5) days prior to such Event.

6. Re-Scheduling/Deemed Cancelled. For justifiable reasons, the SECOND PARTY may request the re-scheduling of the Event, provided (1) that the request is made in writing at least one (1) month prior to the original schedule of the Event, and (2) that the new schedule of the Event proposed by the SECOND PARTY is within six (6) months from the original schedule of the Event. The SECOND PARTY recognizes that such re-scheduling is subject to the availability of the Venue on the proposed re-scheduled date. If the request for re-scheduling cannot be accommodated by the FIRST PARTY because the Venue had already been reserved by another party, the SECOND PARTY's reservation shall be deemed cancelled. If deposit has been made, amount of deposit or a maximum of twenty-five percent (25%) of Aggregate Charges shall be forfeited in favor of the FIRST PARTY.

7. Limitation of Actual Use & Surrender of Venue, Removal of Items Brought In. The Lease Period/s for the Venue shall be limited to the number of hours for each day of use of each specific hall/s, room/s, counter/s facility/ies, equipment, and/or other space/s, as specifically indicated in Annex A - Aggregate Charges. After this period, removal may be undertaken by the FIRST PARTY at the SECOND PARTY's expense, without the former assuming any responsibility for damage or injury to such equipment or movable properties.

8. Prohibitions and Liabilities. Unless authorized by the FIRST PARTY, the SECOND PARTY shall not (i) distribute nor sell within the Venue or other premises at the PICC Complex, any item, material or commodity of whatever kind and nature; or (ii) undertake any commercial photography in connection with the Event.

The SECOND PARTY shall not conduct its activities under this Agreement in such a manner as to endanger or prejudice any person or property inside the Venue and other premises at the PICC Complex, regardless of whether such person or property pertains to the FIRST PARTY, the SECOND PARTY or third parties. In the event of any loss, liability, damage or injury resulting from, or occasioned by, such activities of the SECOND PARTY, its officers, employees, representatives, agents or contractors, including its guests, customers or invitees, the SECOND PARTY shall hold and keep the FIRST PARTY free and harmless from any such loss, liability, damage or injury, and shall fully indemnify the FIRST PARTY of any such loss, liability, damage or injury, including the costs or expenses as well as attorney's fees, incurred by the FIRST PARTY in satisfying the same or in prosecuting or defending any suit or case brought by or against the FIRST PARTY.

The SECOND PARTY shall not hold the Event in such a manner as to offend public decency and good morals, thus, in case the FIRST PARTY shall find the holding of the Event, including the display of materials therein, indecent or immoral, the latter, in its sole discretion, prevent or discontinue the holding of the Event.

Finally, EACH PARTY shall not be responsible for any damage or injury to the other party, its personnel or agent or to third parties arising at any time during the term of this Agreement, except when such damage or injury is caused by the other party's negligence, willful misconduct or breach.

9. Maximum Capacity. The SECOND PARTY must ensure that actual number of persons or individuals attending the Event shall not exceed the maximum capacity of the following hall/s, room/s or area/s based on type of set-up, to wit:

The FIRST PARTY has the right to refuse admission of additional persons or individuals to the Venue, if maximum seating capacity of the Venue has been exceeded, regardless of whether or not those barred admission were issued tickets/invitations or any other authorization by the SECOND PARTY to enter the Venue.

10. Filing of Archive Materials. For archival or record purposes, the FIRST PARTY shall be provided, free of charge, with at least two (2) complete sets of documents, materials, posters, logos and hand-outs including briefs issued or to be issued for or in connection with the Event.

Both parties hereby agree to hold and treat these information as Confidential Information.

Deployment by the SECOND PARTY of security personnel shall be subject to the FIRST PARTY's rules on security, and proper coordination with the FIRST PARTY shall be made within a reasonable period prior to the Event. If necessary, especially in the case of concerts or live shows, the SECOND PARTY shall, at its cost, likewise coordinate with and procure the assistance of the police authorities to assure crowd control as well as peace and order within the PICC Complex and its immediate periphery.

13. Indemnification by FIRST PARTY. Failure by the FIRST PARTY to deliver the Venue on the Lease Period/s, notwithstanding compliance by the SECOND PARTY of all its obligations under this Agreement, shall obligate the FIRST PARTY to indemnify the SECOND PARTY in an amount equivalent to whatever payment was already made by the SECOND PARTY under this Agreement.

There shall be no indemnification of any kind if the FIRST PARTY's failure to deliver was due, wholly or partly, to the fault or negligence of the SECOND PARTY or if such failure was caused by force majeure or any fortuitous event. If such failure to deliver was due to force majeure or fortuitous event, the FIRST PARTY shall allow the re-scheduling of the Event at the Venue or any equivalent premises at the PICC Complex on a date mutually agreed upon by the parties. Should the rescheduling of the Event not proceed due to force majeure or fortuitous event, the SECOND PARTY shall be allowed to cancel the Event without penalty to the FIRST PARTY.

The obligations of the parties insofar as they are affected by such force majeure or fortuitous event shall be suspended during the continuance of any inability so caused, and such inability shall not be a breach of this Agreement.

For purposes of this Agreement, force majeure or fortuitous event shall mean acts beyond the parties' reasonable control, which may not be overcome by due diligence. Such acts shall include, but not limited to, acts of God, strikes, lock outs, labor disputes, material shortages, riots, war, governmental regulation imposed after the fact, flood, fire, earthquake, power outages or other such natural disasters.

15. Dispute Resolution. Any dispute or controversy arising from or in connection with the implementation of this Agreement shall be filed with the Office of Secretary of Justice or the Office of the Solicitor-General, as the case may be, in accordance with the pertinent provisions of Executive Order No. 292 (Administrative Code of 1987). If such dispute or controversy pertains to the failure of the SECOND PARTY to settle any monetary obligation under this Agreement, the FIRST PARTY shall be entitled to charge interest thereon at the rate of one percent (1.0%) per month, or a fraction thereof, until the obligation has been paid in full.

16. No Waiver. Failure or delay by a Party to exercise any right or privilege prescribed in this Agreement shall not operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall the partial exercise of such right or privilege preclude the full exercise thereof.

17. Assignment. The SECOND PARTY shall not assign any of its rights and obligations under this Agreement to any third party, without the prior written consent of the FIRST PARTY.

18. Successors Bound. This Agreement shall be binding on the parties and their respective successors and authorized representatives.

22. Separability. If any provision of this Agreement shall be invalid or unenforceable by final judgment of a competent court, such invalidity or unenforceability shall not invalidate or render unenforceable the entire Agreement, but rather the entire Agreement shall be construed as not containing the particular invalid or unenforceable provision, and the rights and obligations of the parties shall be construed and enforced accordingly.

23. Confidential Information. Both parties hereby agree to hold and treat all Confidential Information, provided to it in connection with this Agreement, or may be derived from the performance of the obligations in this Agreement, and shall implement and maintain safeguards to further assure the confidentiality of such Confidential Information. Such Confidential Information shall not, without the prior written consent of the party concerned, be disclosed or used by the other party or by its subsidiaries or affiliates, or its officers, employees, agents or controlling persons or agents or advisor other than for the purpose of implementing the objectives of this Agreement.
